

Location:

 Fellow Name:

 Attending:

 Rotation Name:

 Dates:

		Lowest		Highest
		1	2	3	4	5
1. Patient Care	Compassionate, appropriate and effective patient care for treatment of health problems and the promotion of health. Has diagnostic skills, orders appropriate tests, serves as patient's advocate; provides high quality comprehensive care and utilizes resources appropriately. History and physical skills are accurate, logical, reliable and efficient; procedural skills are proficient, minimizing discomfort to patients; technically proficient.
2. Medical Knowledge	Up to date knowledge base on established and evolving biomedical, clinical and cognate (e.g. epidemiological and social-behavioral) sciences and application of this knowledge to patient care. Self-motivation to acquire knowledge and maintain medical knowledge base.
3. Systems Based Practice	Understands types of medical practice and delivery systems. Practices cost effective health care and resource allocation while advocating for quality. Awareness of and responsiveness to the larger context and system of health care and the ability to effectively call on system resources to provide care that is of optimal value.
4. Practice Based Learning and Improvement	Integration of medical facts, clinical data; ability to weigh alternatives; understanding of limitations; consideration of costs, risks, benefits and use of diagnostic procedures/therapies. Evaluation and investigation of their own patient care, appraisal and assimilation of scientific evidence and improvements in patient care. Makes use of medical literature.
5. Professionalism	Responsive, reliable, punctual, cooperative, respectful; effective communicator, displays initiative. Sensitivity to a diverse patient population. Commitment to professional responsibilities, adherence to ethical principles.
6. Interpersonal and Communication Skills	Effective information exchange and teaming with patients, their families and other health care professionals. Integrity, respect, compassion and empathy for patient and their families.

Additional Comments:

Was this evaluation reviewed with the fellow? _____ Yes _____ No

Signatures of evaluation participants:

 Attending Physician Signature

 Printed Name of Attending Physician

 Date

 Fellow Signature

 Date